A cost effective choice

Our floating hotel "Vivaldi" has a shallow draught and can be used to accommodate personnel on projects in more remote area's or where existing shore accommodation is not available due to economic or safety reasons. Having accommodation close to a working area of construction site is essential keep costs within budget in large scale projects. Deploying our comfortable floating hotel close to an onshore or offshore working area means more productive hours and less travelling time for the workers. Moreover, "Vivaldi" has a minimal environmental impact and limited infrastructure requirements.

Comfortable accommodation facilities

Good personnel is hard to find and comfortable accommodation facilities with adequate recreational facilities is paramount. All cabins are fully air conditioned with bathroom, lockers, desk and chair. "Vivaldi" has a structured cabling system installed with internet, telephone and television. Further a restaurant with quality catering, bar, recreation rooms, gymnasium and laundry facilities are available to all guests on board. Office facilities and meeting rooms complete the facilities.
